

Spring Break

March 25-30,
2024

Passport to FUN!

State Capitol, 900 Court Street, NE M-F, 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. 503-986-1388

This year the historic portion of the Capitol is under construction. We are going to ask that you explore the open portions of State Capitol State Park and keep your eyes open for the year that Oregon became a state, which is printed on one of the many tiles inset in the Capitol Mall. Bring your pencil along and rub the date on this passport in the place that the stamp would go!

Rubbing Here

Willamette Heritage Center, 1313 Mill Street, SE T-Sat., 10 a.m to 4 p.m.
503-585-7012

The Willamette Heritage Center (WHC) is offering a free souvenir to children with a passport. Center hours are Tuesday through Saturday, 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. for normal operating hours. Other Spring Break programming at WHC:

Monday, March 25: Low-Sensory Inclusive Outreach Day 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

- This event is for individuals with disabilities, their families and support staff.
- Open for self-exploration and feature quiet activities.
- As always, one family member or support staff receive free admission.
- A specialized tour guide will be available.
- Admission: $10 adult, $8 senior, $6 youth (6-17)
- Attendees to this event can apply admission cost to a one-year household membership ($70 value).

Wednesday, March 27: Spring Break Family Day 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

- Bring your family and celebrate spring break at the WHC with games, crafts, a self-guided museum tour and fiber arts demonstrations.
- All children will receive a free souvenir!
- Admission: $10 adult, $8 senior, and $6 youth (6-17).
- Attendees to this event can apply admission cost to a one-year household membership ($70 value).

Stamp Here

Do you have at least four stamps? Fill out entry form, detach and enter to win a Capitol prize basket at any open location!

Name: _____ PHONE: _____

Email address (to learn about future events): _____

How did you hear about us? Facebook _____ Statesman Journal _____ Family/friends _____ Other _____

Deepwood Museum and Gardens, 1116 Mission Street, SE 503-363-1825

The Deepwood Museum is offering guided tours (approx. 45 minutes) Wednesday through Saturday at 9 a.m., 10 a.m., 11 a.m. and noon. Reservations are required, please call 503-363-1825 or email melanie@deepwoodmuseum.org. With your passport you will get reduced adult admission of $5 and up to three children accompanying a paid adult for FREE. A scavenger hunt is available during the tours and each child gets a prize once completed. The parking lot is located on 12th and Lee Street. Gardens are open from sunrise to sunset.

Stamp Here

Hallie Ford Museum of Art, 700 State St. (corner of State & Cottage Streets)
Tue-Sat, noon to 5 p.m. 503-370-6855

“The Hunt is On,” a guide that provides clues to find and learn more about the amazing artwork in the galleries at the Hallie Ford Museum will be provided at the front desk. Choose a prize when you complete the hunt. HFMA is also offering FREE museum admission to people participating in the passport program during Spring Break week with a special bonus day including Saturday, March 23.

Special Exhibitions:

Willem Volkersz: The View From Here: Until March 30 in the Melvin Henderson-Rubio Gallery

Organized by the Missoula Art Museum and the South Dakota Art Museum, Willem Volkersz: The View from Here presents a 25-year retrospective exhibition for Volkersz, an internationally recognized mixed media artist who is known for his neon and paint-by-number-inspired installations.

Singular Visions: Self-Taught Artists From The Permanent Collection: Until April 20 in the Study Gallery and Print Study Center

Organized by curator Jonathan Bucci and drawn exclusively from the Hallie Ford Museum of Art’s permanent collection, the exhibition features work by self-taught artists—artists who have not received any formal training in the visual arts.

Stamp Here

World Beat Gallery, Pringle Plaza, 390 Liberty St. SE, T-F, noon to 5 p.m.
503-581-2004

The World Beat Gallery welcomes all to visit the exhibit, “Welcome Spring: Celebrations Around the World,” showcasing a variety of fun spring traditions. On March 26, at 1 p.m. there will be a free origami class open to all. You will learn how to make simple creations that you can take home. There will also be a cherry blossom craft to make and take throughout the week. Visitors to the Gallery during Spring Break will be entered to win a Family Pass to the 2024 World Beat Festival. That pass includes admission to the festival all 3 days and a parking pass. World Beat Gallery is open Tuesday through Friday from noon to 5 p.m.

Stamp Here

